Article 2

The Company's registered office is situated in the Flemish Region of Belgium at Muntstraat 1, 3000 Leuven, Belgium. The registered office may be relocated to any other place in Belgium, pursuant to a decision by the statutory manager, in so far as such relocation does not necessitate a change in the language of the Articles of Association in order to comply with applicable language legislation.

The Company's website is: www.kbcancora.be.

The Company may be contacted at the following email address: mailbox@kbcancora.be.

Article 3

The object of the Company is to maintain and manage its participating interest in the public company limited by shares KBC Group, in the light of the continuation within the KBC group of the former banking activities of the CERA group or of any company and/or group of companies which is a continuation thereof, in order, together with the cooperative company Cera, to realise and maintain the anchoring of KBC Group.

Without prejudice to Article 35, disposal of the shares held by the Company in the public company limited by shares KBC Group shall nonetheless be possible if the cooperative company Cera has taken a decision to dispose of its entire participating interest in KBC Group, provided the advice of the General Meeting has been sought in this regard. In the sole case where a third party acquires a participating interest of more than fifty percent (50%) in the capital of KBC Group pursuant to a private transfer at a price that is higher than the market price or pursuant to a voluntary public bid for the shares of KBC Group, the Company, barring exceptional circumstances, shall in turn also accept the public takeover bid for its shares in KBC Group or shall sell those shares by standing order without being required to wait for a dissolution resolution pursuant to Article 35. Every company and/or group of companies that is a continuation of the public company limited by shares KBC Group shall be deemed to be the equivalent thereof.

Any person who, on the twelfth day of January two thousand and one, under application of the Law of the second of March nineteen hundred and eighty-nine on disclosure of major shareholdings in listed companies and regulating public takeover bids, issued a transparency declaration relating to the shares of the public company limited by shares Almanij, the legal predecessor of KBC Group, nor its legal successors or persons associated therewith within the meaning of Article 1:20 of the Belgian Code of Companies and Associations, shall not be deemed to be a third party for the purposes of the application of this provision.

The Company may perform all forms of financial transactions in so far as these are reconcilable with and conducive to the maintenance and the management of the participating interest as referred to in the first paragraph of this Article in the public company limited by shares KBC Group or the company which is a continuation thereof.

The Company may perform all transactions, both movable and immovable, which may contribute directly or indirectly to the achievement of its object in its widest sense.

Article 4

The Company is incorporated for an indefinite period.

In the event that the mandate of the statutory manager comes to an end for whatever reason, it shall be continued under the management of the statutory manager appointed pursuant to Article 14.

TITLE II: CAPITAL - SHARES

Article 5

The capital amounts to TWO BILLION TWENTY-ONE MILLION EIGHT HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-ONE THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND NINETY-THREE (2,021,871,293.00) EUROS.

It is represented by seventy-eight million three hundred and one thousand three hundred and fourteen (78,301,314) shares, with no stated nominal value, each representing an equal portion of the capital.

Article 6

Payments on not fully paid-up shares shall be made at the place and on the date determined by the statutory manager, who may take this decision alone. Exercise of the voting rights attached to these shares shall be suspended as long as the duly requested and payable payments have not been made.

Any shareholder failing to effect the requested payment within one month of such request, shall be liable to pay default interest equal to the statutory interest rate plus three percent (3%), from the date of making payable to the date of actual payment.

In the event that a shareholder has failed to accede to a second request to make payment after expiry of one month following the sending thereof by registered letter, the statutory manager may sell the not yet fully paid-up shares in question in the most appropriate manner, in the name and for the account of the defaulting shareholder, without prejudice to the Company's entitlement to the amount to be fully paid and to compensation if there are grounds for this.

Article 7

Shares shall be registered or dematerialised with the exception of shares which are not fully paid up, which shall in all cases be registered. Shareholders may request that their shares be converted to registered shares at any time and at their own expense.

Registered shares shall be entered in a Shareholder Register, which may be held in electronic format. Entry in the Shareholder Register shall serve as evidence of ownership. At the request of the shareholder, the Company shall provide a certificate of entry in the Register.

Dematerialised shares shall be represented by an entry in an account registered in the name of the owner or of the holder, held at an authorised account-holder or a settlement institution and transferred by inter-account transfer. The number of dematerialised shares in circulation at any given time shall be recorded in the share register in the name of the settlement institution.

Shares shall be indivisible and the Company shall recognise only one owner per share. In the event that multiple persons hold rights in relation to the same share, exercise of the rights associated with that share shall be suspended until a single person has been appointed as the holder of the voting rights vis-à-vis the Company.

During a period of five years commencing from the publication in the Annexes to the Belgian Official Gazette of the amendment of the Company's Articles of Association by the Extraordinary General Meeting held on the thirtieth of October two thousand and twenty, the statutory manager shall be authorised to increase the Company's capital one or more times, through the issuing of new shares of the same type as the existing shares, of convertible bonds or of subscription rights conferring an entitlement to such new shares up to a total amount not exceeding the amount of the current capital, either by means of cash contributions or contributions in kind within the limits prescribed in Article 7:201(3) of the Belgian Code of Companies and Associations, or by incorporation of reserves (including share premiums, profits carried forward and other components of shareholders' equity) into the capital.

In exercising the authority pursuant to the first paragraph of this Article, the statutory manager shall also be authorised, in the interests of the Company, to restrict or withdraw the preferential rights of the existing shareholders in the event of capital increases through cash contributions, where applicable, for the benefit of one or more specific individuals, other than staff members. This shall also apply when the statutory manager exercises this authority by issuing convertible bonds or subscription rights. The statutory manager may however not exercise this authority for the issuance of subscription rights which are intended principally for one or more specific individuals, other than staff members.

In exercising the authority pursuant to the first and second paragraphs of this Article, the statutory manager shall also be authorised, during a period of three years commencing on the thirtieth of October two thousand and twenty, in the event that the Belgian Financial Services and Markets Authority notifies the Company that it has been informed of a public takeover bid for the Company's securities, to increase the capital by means of contributions in kind or in cash, possibly including the restriction or suspension of the preferential rights of the existing shareholders, by means of the issuance of fully paid-up shares at an issue price that is at least equal to the price of the bid and in a total number not exceeding one tenth of the number of existing shares.

Article 9

The General Meeting may decide that the Company may acquire or have disposal of its own shares in accordance with the Belgian Code of Companies and Associations.

This authorisation shall be granted for a period of five years commencing on the thirtieth of October two thousand and twenty.

The statutory manager shall also be authorised, without requiring the prior consent of the General Meeting, to dispose of the Company's own shares in accordance with the conditions determined by law, including disposal to one or more specific persons other than the Company's personnel.

During a period of three years commencing from the publication in the Annexes to the Belgian Official Gazette of the amendment of the Company's Articles of Association by the Extraordinary General Meeting held on the thirtieth of October two thousand and twenty, the statutory manager shall be authorised, without requiring the authorisation of the General Meeting, in order to avert a threatened material disadvantage for the Company, to acquire the Company's own shares and to dispose of such of its own shares as are held by the Company.

Any and all authorisations for the purchase or disposal as referred to hereinbefore shall also apply in the event that such acquisition or disposal is effected by a subsidiary of the Company as defined in Article 7:221 of the Belgian Code of Companies and Associations.

Dematerialised bonds shall be represented by an entry in an account registered in the name of the owner or of the holder, held at an authorised account-holder or a settlement institution and transferred by inter-account transfer. The number of dematerialised bonds in circulation at any given time shall be recorded in the bond register in the name of the settlement institution.
